Serving Utah Retired School Employees since 1944

PLEASE JOIN OR RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP TODAY

Note: If you are currently a CM or Continuing Member by having $1 a month deduction, you need not re-apply. (If you are not sure, check the deductions on your retirement check. It is also noted on the last page of the Bulletin.)

Membership in URSEA is an investment in your retirement future. Your membership makes a difference in many ways. Please join the thousands of other Utah school retirees who have already become members by completing the enclosed application and returning it to the address indicated. To learn more about the Utah Retired School Employees Association, please visit our web page at www.ursea.org

URSEA has a group benefit package that gives our members sole access to a variety of insurances, travel perks, and computer discounts. Many of our members are using these benefits to enhance their retirement and make their retirement checks go just a little further.

The Utah Retired School Employees Association will be only as strong as the dedication and unity of its members. If you have any questions regarding the URSEA or this letter, please contact the URSEA Office at 1-801-836-2715.

Your Local Unit and State Associations are working together for you. For more information on your area's local unit, please check our web page at www.ursea.org under the link, local units.
